

Vision

The Biblical College for Arab Leaders exists (1) to help Arab Christians become faithful disciples having a vision and zeal for evangelizing and discipling others; (2) to equip them as leaders who serve to strengthen local churches; and (3) to prepare them for ministering to others with the Word of God.

Description

The Biblical College for Arab Leaders does not have a resident campus, but rather provides extension training in several Arab countries using specially designed courses that have been translated into Arabic. These courses have been successfully used around the world for training Christian leaders. Each course comes with a workbook that the student carefully studies through. Students then meet together in small groups of 8-15 led by a trained facilitator who leads the group in an interactive discussion of the material studied. These courses are also available for study through the Internet.
